Lodge was opened on the third degree of Masonry in Due Form at 7:30PM. Minutes from 19MAR2026 read.

DEATHS REPORTED:

SICKNESS REPORTED:

1. Dennis Edwards is doing well, will get new PET scan next week. Bro Edwards thanked the lodge for the continued prayers.

WM asked for the Secretary's Correspondence:

1. Please remit dues payments for 2026 ASAP; 7 outstanding.
2. Pancake Breakfast fundraiser date is March 28th.
  - a. Lots of payments have already been received. Thank you!
  - b. All supplies are purchased and are at the lodge. Bro Secretary will pick up juice, milk, creamer the day before the event.
  - c. Bro Larry Barnes has been hard at work arranging the cooking team along with pancake batter, sausage, grills, propane. Many thanks to Bro Larry.
  - d. We welcome all volunteers to the event. Plan to be at the lodge at 5AM.
3. Scholarship applications were mailed to schools today.
4. Discussion held regarding several awards to be presented for 60 years, 50 years, and 25 years of service. Bro Secretary asked if we would like to look into having a guest from GL come present. DDGM will assist Bro Secretary in contacting the GL.
  - a. Jack Wooten made motion to have awards night. Seconded by Jim Kolb. Voted and passed unanimously.
  - b. We will work with DDGM to contact GL, then set a date, then contact award recipients and broadcast via email, mailings, and social media.

WM Correspondence:

1. Will advertise Pancake breakfast with local radio. WM will also reach out to JOCO report for advertising.
2. Tuned over the floor to DDGM

DDGM Correspondence:

1. Brings greetings from GM. Masonry is not broken. There are hot topics about how to get young men involved.
  - a. Lots of lodges recycling WM, serving multiple years.
  - b. Our building and funds are in good shape. Reality is that there a lot of lodges barely making it. Lots of talk about consolidation.
2. How do we focus on getting more young men involved?
